Complete List 2021

Welcome to the Usborne Complete List 2021

I've been making books for children for over 50 years and can honestly say that I've enjoyed every day of it. Children have grown up with Usborne books and are now sharing them with their own families. I want Usborne books to encourage play, to make knowledge irresistible, to expand horizons and to spark curiosity. I am now almost 83, but I still look forward every morning to coming to work (even if it's at home during recent months) to create books to educate and entertain children everywhere.

But the year since I introduced our last big catalogue has been an unprecedented one, even in my (long) career.

We were thrilled to have been named Children's Publisher of the Year by our industry – for the second time – particularly in the light of the strength of the competitors in our field. I do believe that we are working in a golden age of children's publishing, and we were honoured to be recognised. I must dedicate the award to my wonderful staff, who stay and stay with us at Usborne.

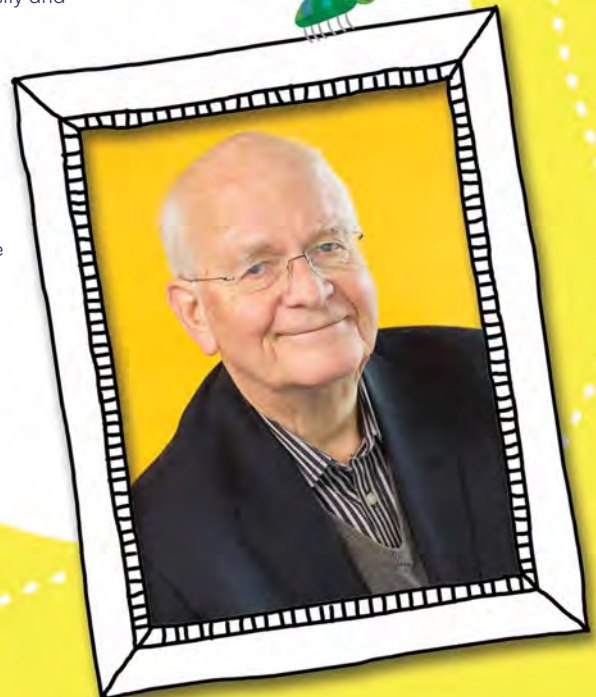

This summer the world reacted with anger to the killing of George Floyd. The Black Lives Matter movement is, I believe, one of the most significant protest movements of my lifetime and has given our industry, and very much us included, a welcome and appropriate wake up call that we must do better when it comes to representing and promoting diversity and inclusion in our business and publishing. We commit ourselves to doing that.

We've also witnessed the global coronavirus pandemic, which has rapidly changed the way we live, work and we do business. Many of you reading this will have had an incredibly tough year. My thoughts are with all of you.

I hope you will find plenty in this catalogue to inspire and delight you, and that the year ahead will be better than the last.

Internet-linked Books

Usborne Internet-linked books are enhanced with links to recommended websites where readers can find out more with virtual tours, video clips, games and other multimedia.

There are over 500 internet-linked books from encyclopedias to sticker books, all illustrated in this catalogue.

Usborne Quicklinks

At the Usborne Quicklinks website, each book has a dedicated webpage with links to recommended websites and resources for that book. To be included in Quicklinks, a website must pass our very strict criteria for selection and we continually monitor the recommended sites to check content and update links.

Visit Usborne Quicklinks at Usborne.com/Quicklinks

Where can Quicklinks take you?

- Websites with video clips and activities that enhance the information in Usborne books.
- Pronunciation guides with over 20,000 sound clips for Usborne language books.
- Free downloadable pictures, diagrams and maps for school and personal use and quizzes, puzzles and colouring sheets.

How do internet links work?

Books with QR links

QR codes printed on the pages of some of our internet-linked books, for example the Usborne Children's Encyclopedia or Drawing Animals, take readers straight to video clips, quizzes or music that enhance the information on the page. Just scan the QR codes with a smart-phone or tablet to visit the links.

“Thank you for Quicklinks. It feels like the best of both worlds for the kids. Brilliant books that they can hold, and safe web links that are making the content come alive.”

Turn on your torches and join Aveline Jones!

Aveline loves reading ghost stories, so a dreary half-term becomes much more exciting when she discovers a spooky old book that belonged to a girl who vanished mysteriously. Intrigued, Aveline decides to investigate the girl's disappearance, with some help from her new friend, Harold. Now someone...or something, is stirring. And it is looking for Aveline.

A deliciously spine-tingling, spooky new series, where mysteries are always solved, spirits laid to rest, and everybody gets to bed on time.

Born in the UK, Phil now lives with his wife in Portland, Oregon, where he works as an advertising copywriter. He has a passion for horror, ghosts, and all things that go bump in the night. His short stories have been published in adult horror anthologies. The Haunting of Aveline Jones is his first middle grade novel.

"A fast-paced, high-stakes adventure that I couldn't put down."

Amy Alward, author of The Potion Diaries

S.M. Wilson lives on the West Coast of Scotland. Her day job is as a nurse in public health — and her dream job is writing fiction. Her love of YA fiction started as a teenager and has never stopped. She wrote The Extinction Trials to try and infect her sons with the same love of reading that she has — watch out, she's hoping it's contagious!

First published in the late 1970s, Usborne's The World of the Unknown series was loved — and feared — by children all round the world, for more than 20 years. It was never forgotten by the generation who grew up with it and, in 2019, they got together on social media to demand its return. Resurrected for a new generation, with forewords by celebrity superfans Reece Shearsmith and Jon Culshaw.

Praise for *The World of the Unknown: Ghosts

"Its macabre contents stayed with me my whole life. Shaped it, even"

BAFTA-winning writer, comedian and actor Reece Shearsmith

"A seminal work of ground-breaking genius"

David Nicholls, author of One Day and Sweet Sorrow
